International

- The United States warned against the risk of a nuclear conflict in South Asia, as China called for more talks on India's application seeking membership of an exclusive club of nuclear suppliers. A senior US official, however, disagreed with the suggestion that India's entry into the Nuclear Suppliers Group (NSG) would affect strategic stability in South Asia.
- Nihad Awad, executive director of the Council on American-Islamic Relations, called for unity and urged politicians not to "exploit" the slaughter in Orlando, which left 50 dead and dozens more injured.
- Islamic State claimed responsibility for the shooting that killed at least 50 people at a gay nightclub in Orlando Florida, in an official broadcast on the group's Al-Bayan Radio.
